

AirRoad Linehaul Services – 2021 / 2022 Holiday Season

Dear Valued Client,

As we reach the end of another very challenging year and the holiday season approaches, we would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued business.

We look forward to working with you in the coming year, and wish you good health, happiness, and success in 2022.

On top of the normal seasonal volume increases, the ongoing demand for transport services created by the COVID-19 situation has placed an unprecedented strain on delivery networks which may result in deliveries being completed outside of our express transit times.

Therefore, to avoid disappointment we ask that our clients allow additional shipping time for all consignments, particularly date sensitive deliveries.

The final linehaul departures traveling to Sydney, Perth and Brisbane will depart Melbourne on Friday 24 December.

Transit times may vary over the Christmas period especially for remote areas.

Please also note that some delivery agents, particularly in country areas, may not be operating between Christmas and New Year. If a delivery is required at this time, please contact your Account Manager prior to dispatch to confirm if the required service is available.

All interstate and intrastate linehaul schedules will return to normal from Tuesday the 4th of January 2021.

We thank you for your understanding, and if you have any further questions, please feel free to contact your Account Manager.

Best Regards,
